- Born in San Sebastián, Basque Country, Spain.
- Came to Stuttgart in 1996 as part of her architecture studies and lives there ever since.
- Worked as an architect until she took a leap of faith and tried her dream job: being a fashion illustrator.
- Clients: Dior, Chanel, Armani Beauty, HUGO BOSS, Wolford, L'Oréal Group, Lillet among many others.
- Speaks 4 languages.
- Besides drawing she loves ballet, languages, swimming in the sea and practicing tennis in the sun.
- Trivia: She was a finalist at a fashion design contest organized by Wonderbra and Marie Claire when she was still an architecture student. She put her mother in the situation of having to sew a wild dress she had designed without suspecting that it would come that far to have to really make it. It was fantastic to see the dress on the catwalk and probably the first "magic" thing that happened in her life and showed her that the possibilities are greater than what you first imagine.
